Note

Fighting in his adopted home country of Germany and cheered by a large and noisy contingent of fellow Cubans, Scull won the IBF super middleweight title previously owned by Saul Alvarez by surviving a scary final round to win a unanimous but questionable decision. Aesthetically and statistically, Shishkin appeared to do more than enough to get the victory as he was the cleaner puncher (110-80 overall, 68-36 power), the effective aggressor (30%-23% in power accuracy), the more active man (62.2 punches per round to Scull's 29.9) and the man who built a 7-4-1 gap in the CompuBox round-by-round breakdown of total connects. That said, Scull was more accurate overall (22%-15%) and in jabs (21%-8%) while leading 44-42 in landed jabs, jabs that created bruising around both eyes, but Shishkin attacked the body well (43-18 in connects). Scoring: 116-113, 116-112, 115-113 Scull.
