Note

Fighting on the Gilberto Ramirez-Chris Billam Smith undercard in Saudi Arabia, Duarte and Akhmedov (10-3, lost two of last three) engaged in a grueling toe-to-toe battle from start to finish, but Duarte's slightly better work rate (88.2 punches per round to Akhmedov's 78.8) and effective aggression earned him the rightful nod over the California-based Uzbek, who acquitted himself well despite being a late sub for Kenneth Sims Jr. Duarte finished the fight ahead 254-211 overall, 37-34 jabs, 217-177 power and 8-2 in the CompuBox round-by-round breakdown of total connects, though the fighters were separated by three or fewer total connects in three rounds. Duarte led 29%-27% in overall accuracy and 12%-10% in jab precision, but Akhmedov prevailed 39%-37% in power accuracy and 65-63 in body connects. An excellent table-setter for the fights that came later. Scoring: 98-92, 97-93, 96-94 D.
