Inside The Numbers

Cruz had success early on, especially finding a home for his uppercut. Katzourakis seemed to wake up after Cruz landed a hard right hand that sent him stumbling back early in the second round. Katzourakis out-landed Cruz 153-51 over rounds two through seven. 37% of Katzourakis' power punch lands were body shots. Cruz's accuracy and activity dipped as Katzourakis broke him down. Cruz only connected on 26% of his power punches, while Katzourakis landed 53% of his. Though Cruz survived being knocked down in the seventh round, his corner had seen enough, and threw in the towel.
