Inside The Numbers

Mbilli wins the WBC "interim" super middleweight title -- and a probable spot on the September 13 Saul Alvarez-Terence Crawford undercard -- with a massive right uppercut to the jaw of Sulecki (33-3, won last fight) at the end of a combination. Sulecki regained his feet, but was deemed unfit to continue by referee Michael Griffin just 148 seconds after the opening bell. For the record, Mbilli finished the fight ahead 15-1 overall, 3-0 jabs, 11-1 body and 12-1 power as well as 29%-3% overall, 10%-0% jabs and 52%-9% power.
