Inside The Numbers

Arthur opened the fight using his jab to penetrate Rea's leaky defense. Arthur was so effective that Rea's left eye was damaged by the second round. Rea seemed to flip the fight when he knocked Rea down in the last 20 seconds of the second round. However, Arthur continued to intercept Rea with punches, and as the fight moved on, Rea was less and less willing to attempt to get into punching range. Arthur threw 301 jabs and landed 79, while Rea only landed 24 jabs. Arthur also connected on 48% of his power punches. One judge scored the fight a 114-114 draw, while the other two judges scored the fight 115-113 and 115-112, both for Arthur.
