Inside The Numbers

Gassiev retained his secondary WBA heavyweight title for the first time by taking out Kadiru (23-1, won last nine), a late substitute for Tony Yoka. The Russian, fighting before his home country fans in Moscow, peppered the German with fast, snappy, half-strength blows throughout the match until an unanswered series of power shots prompted Kadiru's corner to leap onto the apron while waving a towel of surrender. Gassiev averaged 76.2 punches per round to Kadiru's 56.3 and ended the match ahead 100-35 overall, 48-9 body, 84-19 power and 6-0 in the CompuBox round-by-round breakdown of total connects (both landed 16 jabs). Gassiev landed 25% overall, 8% jabs and 40% power compared to Kadiru's 12%, 9% and 15% respectively.
