Inside The Numbers

Schofield took the fight to the heavy-handed Bahdi and found success early, dropping him with a check left hook in the closing minute of the second round. Schofield's aggression gave Bahdi openings, though, and the referee's reading of them cut both ways. In the ninth, Bahdi landed a punch that put Schofield's left knee on the canvas and got nothing for it. In the eleventh, Bahdi landed a punch while stepping on Schofield's right foot, sending him down, and that one was scored a knockdown. Accuracy decided the fight. Schofield landed 43 more punches and connected at 33 percent to Bahdi's 23. The judges scored it 119-108, 116-110 and 115-111, all for Schofield.
